

IRRAS Announces Participation at the 69th Congress of Neurological Surgeons' Annual Meeting (CNS 2019)

Stockholm, October 19, 2019 – IRRAS, a global healthcare company with a comprehensive portfolio of innovative products for neurocritical care, announced today that it will be participating at the 69th Congress of Neurological Surgeons' Annual Meeting (CNS 2019). CNS 2019 is being held at the Moscone Center, West Building, in San Francisco, CA on October 19-23, 2019.

The CNS Annual Meeting is a well-respected, highly attended conference that brings together neurosurgeons and related healthcare professionals from around the world.

IRRAS will be partnering with the Congress of Neurological Surgeons and participating in an all-day symposium focused on neurotrauma, which will be a practical update for neurosurgeons taking neurotrauma call. The symposium will include a product demonstration station, where IRRAS[®]flow, the world's first irrigating ventricular drainage system, and the Hummingbird Neuromonitoring product line will be showcased. Details are provided below.

Neurotrauma Update Symposium

Title: "SYM 11: Neurotrauma Update"

Date/Time: Sunday, October 20th at 8:00 am
