

IRRAS announces changes to management team

Stockholm, June 17, 2021 - IRRAS, a commercial-stage medical technology company with a comprehensive portfolio of innovative products for neurocritical care, today announced that Sabina Berlin will step down as Chief Financial Officer (CFO) due to personal reasons. Griffen Stapp, who currently serves as the company's Group Financial Controller, will act as interim CFO until the search for a permanent replacement is complete. Mrs. Berlin will continue to work closely with company leadership to provide needed guidance and support during the transition period.

"Since Sabina joined IRRAS in 2014, she has been instrumental in building IRRAS into a company that is positioned for commercial acceleration," said Kleanthis G. Xanthopoulos, Ph.D., Chief Executive Officer of IRRAS. "Working across two continents with a 9-hour time difference is very demanding, and we understand and accept her decision. We are fortunate that we have an experienced internal resource in Griffen, who has the necessary expertise to capably fill the role."
