

IRRAS Expands Short-term Financing Agreement

Stockholm, Sweden, August 10, 2022 – IRRAS, a commercial-stage medical technology company with a comprehensive portfolio of innovative products for neurocritical care, today announced an expansion of the previously announced short-term financing agreement with Bacara Holdings, its largest shareholder, which is led by the company's Chairman of the Board of Directors, Marios Fotiadis.

This extension of the bridge loan agreement will provide IRRAS an additional MSEK 10 in funding to cover its working capital needs until the completion of the company's ongoing rights issue process, which was approved at an EGM held on Wednesday, 3 August 2022. This loan expansion will be a secured credit facility with an interest rate of 6.0% on an annual basis, which are the same terms as the original short-term loan agreement with Bacara Holdings, and will be repaid with proceeds generated by the rights issue.
